Course Overview	This qualification reflects the role of chefs and cooks who have a supervisory or team leading role in the kitchen. They operate independently or with limited guidance from others and use discretion to solve non-routine problems. This qualification provides a pathway to work in organisations such as restaurants, hotels, clubs, pubs, cafes and coffee shops, or to run a small business in these sectors. The skills in this qualification must be applied in accordance with Commonwealth and State or Territory legislation, Australian standards and industry codes of practice. No occupational licensing, certification or specific legislative requirements apply to this qualification at the time of publication.
Credit Transfer	'Credit Transfer' (CT) is a process that provides students with agreed and consistent credit outcomes for components of a qualification based on identified equivalence in content and learning outcomes between matched qualifications. The process of transferring credit from a previously obtained unit of competency into a unit of competency the student is enrolling into represents the granting of exemption or credit by SCM to students for units of competency completed under accredited training. These unit codes must identically match the units that you are applying for credit. Where the unit code is not identical, the student is to be referred to the Compliance Manager for further discussion. SCM's Credit Transfer Policy on applying for credit transfer can be located on our website.
Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL)	Prior to commencement, a review of each student's previous education, training and work experience will be conducted in order to determine if there is a need to recognise existing competencies through recognition of prior learning. An RPL process is in place for learners who wish to gain either recognition for an individual unit or the complete Qualification. Students may either directly apply for RPL or may be identified during the pre-training review process and will be offered to undertake the RPL pathway by SCM College staff. SCM's Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) Policy on applying for RPL can be located on our website
Sequence of Delivery and Assessment/ Course Structure	This program will be delivered over 104 weeks. Learners are provided with learning resources, training manuals, assessment requirements. Delivery Weekly Hours Each week, students will attend 20 hours of face-to-face training and assessment.

Further Study Pathways

Training Pathway from SIT40521 – Certificate IV in Kitchen Management

Upon successful completion of this qualification, students may undertake further training in the hospitality field to expand on their skills and knowledge such as:

- SIT50422 - Diploma of Hospitality Management (Release 2)
- SIT60322 - Advanced Diploma of Hospitality Management (Release 1)

Exiting Training Product

Students who do not successfully complete the qualification will be issued with a 'Statement of Attainment' listing all units that have been successfully completed.

Determining Suitability Assessment

Pre-Training Review:

The Pre-training Review is to be conducted within the Determining Suitability Review. It will consist of a self-assessment and series of questions that are relevant to identify the prospective student's current academic and professional skills and knowledge.

The pre-training review is conducted as a means of determining the appropriateness of the chosen qualification, any prior knowledge in the field and if it is a suitable training option in which the student chooses to study.

Upon completion, the pre-training information is assessed and the outcomes recorded in the Determining Suitability Review. Suggestions are recorded and transferred to the trainer on the training plan.

Language, Literacy and Numeracy Assessment

Included in the Determining Suitability Assessment is the Language, Literacy and Numeracy (LLN) test. Students will be required to complete the LLN test to determine their level to be able to complete the course or be offered additional support prior to entry into a course. Students will be admitted into the respective courses only if their LLN test result is within the college specific required range outline in TAS (Training and Assessment Strategy)

Sunshine College of Management Pty Ltd will not enrol an eligible individual where the qualification is at an inappropriate level for that student. In the event that minor gaps* are identified, Sunshine College of Management Pty Ltd will provide the student with support services to enable them to undertake the qualification.

**minor gaps refer to forms of reasonable adjustment that will not compromise the qualification requirements.*

Upon completion of the Determining Suitability Assessment the authorised delegate is to provide feedback to the student regarding the suitability of the qualification to the student's needs and indicate if any support services are required prior to application. This information can be placed on the last page of the training plan in the allocated space.

Learning Style Assessment

The learning Style assessment is designed to assess the prospective students learning style and what should be considered in;

- How they learn
- How they study and
- How they should be assessed.

The purpose of this assessment is to ensure that the way in which the prospective course is to be delivered is suitable to the student needs.

Upon completing all areas, the assessment is tallied and the outcomes recorded in the Determining Suitability Review, suggestions are recorded and transfer to the trainer on the training plan.

Medical Issues

Upon enrolling into Sunshine College of Management Pty Ltd, we request that you disclose if you have any medical conditions as there may be contraindications to the course you wish to enrol into.
